A SONG WRITTEN JUST FOR THEM

Keep the Umbrella

VERSE

Six years ago at a rainy bus stop,
You borrowed my umbrella in the rain,
And never gave it back, I won't complain.
Two years on we shared a door and key,
Now home is wherever you are with me.

CHORUS

Happy birthday, Maren, hear me sing,
You changed my life, you changed everything.
Hum your off-key tune, I'll hum along,
You are my home, you are my song.

VERSE

Sunday mornings, you're humming at the stove,
Off-key and sweet, and it's the song I love.
When Dad had surgery, you stayed up with me,
Never a burden, you let me just be.

CHORUS

Happy birthday, Maren, hear me sing,
You changed my life, you changed everything.
Hum your off-key tune, I'll hum along,
You are my home, you are my song.

OUTRO

So keep the umbrella, love, keep it for good,
I'd lend you the sky if I could.
